

A certain brother asked an old man,

“What shall I do about my negligence?”

The old man said unto him,

“If thou wilt root
out this small plant, which is negligence,
a great forest will come into being.”

The Paradise of the Fathers, #293, Vol. II, p. 65

PEARLS, July 2-8, 2012

Holy Transfiguration Monastery, Brookline, MA